Crossing the Costa Smeralda, destination of the international jet set, where a panoramic road overlooking the crystalline sea, yacht and dream villas set in the nature will make you daydream. You will pass through the tourist areas of Palau and Santa Teresa, where at the foot of the Capo Testa lighthouse you can refresh your spirit while enjoying a good coffee, admiring the Bocche di Bonifacio and the white cliffs of Corsica.

1 - Olbia Costa Smeralda Airport - Alghero - 227

Day 1) Olbia-Alghero - 227km Today can only start crossing the Costa Smeralda, destination of the international jet set, where a panoramic road overlooking the crystalline sea, yacht and dream villas set in the nature will make you daydream. You will pass through the tourist areas of Palau and Santa Teresa, where at the foot of the Capo Testa lighthouse you can refresh your spirit while enjoying a good coffee, admiring the Bocche di Bonifacio and the white cliffs of Corsica. Then continue towards Castelsardo, keeping the sea on your right in the coast that runs through the northern part of Sardinia: the mediterranean vegetation and the scent of myrtle berries will be your traveling companion. Once you will arrive in Castelsardo, an ancient village perched high above the sea, we recommend a visit to the castle and a lunch at the restaurant "L'incantu" accompanied by the splendid view that characterizes it. After an excellent lunch of fish, head towards Alghero, crossing the whole province of Sassari.

2 - Alghero - Alghero - 234

Day 2) Alghero-Alghero - 234km Head towards Villanova Monteleone, where you will enter the heart of Sardinia, crossing the untouched nature of Foresta Burgos towards Bono. In the afternoon, stop in Pattada for a visit to the Museum of Sardinian history and tradition in which, among the numerous objects, the typical sardinian knives are exhibited: the "Pattadese". In the late afternoon, return to Alghero, crossing the entire province of Sassari. Once arrived allow yourself a little healthy relaxation sipping a breathtaking aperitif at the Riservato Beach Bar. Only after watching the sun set over the sea, get lost in the narrow streets of the old town where you will have a wide choice of typical restaurants, among these we recommend "La bifora", located on the ramparts that dominate the marina.

3 - Alghero - Gavoi - 194

Day 3) Alghero-Gavoi - 194km This morning head south towards Bosa along the coast road Alghero-Bosa, a renowned fishing village, famous for its canal port and for the medieval castle. To get there, you will follow a coastal road that is a candidate to become Unesco heritage due to its curves overlooking the sea and its breathtaking views. In fact, 53 km of curves that border the sea of the coast that joins the Nurra to Logudoro will be waiting for you, as well as for the quality of the route, guided also by its perfumes and colors. You will touch with your hand how on this island a few kilometers are enough to find yourself in a completely different place, starting from the color of the earth to that of the sea. From Bosa begins your journey to the center of Sardinia in the direction of Aritzo, a small town built on top of the mountains in the center of Sardinia and surrounded by ancient woods that will make you forget you are on an island in the heart of the mediterranean sea. In the afternoon, head north towards Gavoi, where the mountains of the Supramonte with its hundreds of high altitude bends will make you live an unforgettable experience. Once you reach your destination, treat yourself to a well deserved rest while staying at Hotel Taloro where we recommend a typical sardinian dinner.

4 - Gavoi - Arbatax - 161

Day 4) Gavoi-Arbatax - 161km It will be a stretch of roads and breathtaking views in the most high-altitude areas of the island. You will pass by Fonni, the only ski resort on the island, Gadoni, Seulo and Seui. You will also pass through Gairo Vecchia, a picturesque village abandoned at the foot of the collapsing mountain, where time seems to have stopped. The guided part will be shorter than usual to allow you to get to Arbatax where you can enjoy a unique experience at the Sant'Efisio restaurant, an apparently untended place that will amaze you with its typical flavors and its culurgiones, a traditional pasta home made. Then enjoy a little 'relaxation at the Saraceno Resort, where a private beach and a swimming pool on the sea will leave you enchanted.

5 - Arbatax - Arbatax - 274

Day 5) Arbatax-Arbatax - 274km Today is dedicated to the culture and history of Sardinia. Head south in the stretch of the SS 125 Orientale Sarda connecting Arbatax to Muravera and then go towards the center of the island in the direction of Barumini where you can not visit the nuragic palace: the largest nuragic settlement dating back over 4000 years ago. In this magical place the guides will immerse you in the most ancient history of the island and will tell you the life of the inhabitants of Sardinia between wars, religion, society and customs. After a quick lunch return to Arbatax passing through a part of unspoiled Sardinia with a very low population density, in which nature and grazing animals are the true hosts.

6 - Arbatax - Olbia Costa Smeralda Airport - 252

Day 6) Arbatax-Olbia - 252km Head north towards Dorgali in the most beautiful stretch of the SS 125 Orientale Sarda, the one that connects Dorgali to Tortolì: the mountains, the gorge of Su Gorroppu and the landscapes of this unspoiled corner of Sardinia will give you emotions strong. Cross the tourist areas of San Teodoro, Siniscola and Budoni up to Porto Taverna where you can have lunch on the sand in the beautiful restaurant "12.1", admiring the island of Tavolara. In the afternoon you reach the Costa Smeralda, destination of the international jet set, where the panoramic road overlooking the crystal clear sea, yacht and dream villas set in the nature will make you daydream.
