Highlights in Northern Morocco include parts of the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts, Roman ruins, the Rif Mountains, and several colorful and ancient medinas. The north of Morocco is likely greener than you'd imagine (they grow olives and even wine grapes!), and its home to most of the country's imperial cities and the history that goes along with them. Major stops in this part of the country include Casablanca, Rabat, and Meknes, the ruins of Volubilis, Fes, and Chefchaouen.

1 - Casablanca - Casablanca - 0 km

We fly to Casablanca, once at the airport our guide will come to pick us up to take us to the hotel, where we will have a small talk about what we will see and do in the next few days and from here, we will have dinner. Tomorrow we start the motorcycle route

2 - Casablanca - Rabat - 86 km

We start the route, today will be a day of contact, because we are going to Rabat, the capital of Morocco, today we will only do 86 km close to the coast, along the main road, we will enjoy incredible landscapes over the Atlantic Ocean. Once in Rabat, we will be able to discover this magnificent city and its markets, mosques, have a tea or a coffee in one of its terraces with panoramic views ... At night a good dinner awaits us and sleep, since tomorrow does not expect a longest day on motorcycles.

3 - Rabat - Tangier - 250 km

Today, after a good breakfast we leave towards Tangier, today 250 km of pure fun await us on our motorcycles ... Tangier is a city located in the north of Morocco and is the gateway to Europe, since it is only 15 km away from the Spanish coasts. Tangier has been and is a mixture of cultures and architecture in which we can lose ourselves during the afternoon and enjoy its incredible bay, have dinner while watching Europe in the background. Tomorrow we continue on our way.

4 - Tangier - Chefchaouen - 112 km

We go to Chefchaouen or better known as Cahouen, the most characteristic of this city are its buildings painted in sky blue, and its friendly and hospitable people ... This city is located at the foot of the Rif mountain range, with which nights are cooler than normal ... Today's path will be interesting since we will start on the shores of the Atlantic, but we will gradually enter the country, and we will be able to discover its secrets, its smells, its flavors, today is a good day on the bike.

5 - Chefchaouen - El Hoceima - 235 km

Today after a good breakfast, we continue our way, in this case towards the city of Al Hoceima, located on the shores of the Mediterranean, and known as one of the cleanest and safest cities in Morocco ... Before it was not easy to access this population, but little by little the Moroccan government has been building better roads and accesses. This city also stands out for its white sand beaches and its good gastronomy.

6 - El Hoceima - Fes - 250 km

Today we head to Fez, things are starting to get interesting. This day in which we will do about 250 km we will start it soon to be able to reach the city and that we still have time to explore it, since Fez has the largest medina in all of Morocco and it is a place that you should visit if or if ... In its medina we can find the leather tanners and enjoy the ancient methods that are still used today to tan and dye the hides. We will also be able to discover mosques, markets and squares for which time seems to have stopped a century ago.

7 - Fes - Moulay Yacoub Prefecture - 22 km

Today we go to Moulay Yacoub, the journey will be very short since it is only separated from Fez by about 22 km, but this town in the Middle Atlas is known for its waters and thermal baths that descend from the Atlas mountains and run through this incredible enclave . You can also go to visit the tomb of Saint Lalla Chafia, who was the daughter of Moulay Yacoub. Lalla's tomb is located at the top of the mountain.

8 - Moulay Yacoub Prefecture - Casablanca - 300 km

Today is our last day on the motorcycle, and we are heading towards Casablanca, for this we will have to travel about 300 km through the interior of Morocco, enjoying lost roads. Once in Casablanca, we return the bikes and have the whole afternoon free to walk around and enjoy this city.

9 - Casablanca - Casablanca - 0 km

Today we return home, depending on what time the return flight leaves, they will take us to the airport
