We offer an enduro circuit in Senegal, where we will take a varied tour with its maritime facade, the Siné Saloum delta and Casamance to the south, and the savannah plains...

An adventure full of contrasts both in nature and in humanity... with multiple ethnicities (including the WOLOFS, PEULS (and Toucouleurs), whom we will meet in small villages, colorful markets... making the incomparable charm of Black Africa!

Senegal presents an incredible variety and diversity (dunes, wooded savannah, tropical forest, reserves and nature parks...

1 - Dakar - Saly - 0

Europe - Dakar/Saly flight Arrival at the airport in the evening. Welcome by our friends and transfer to the outskirts of Dakar, in Saly, the ideal starting point for the raid. "Welcome drink", briefing and free dinner (depending on arrival time). Night in a comfortable guesthouse.

2 - Saly - Saloum - 150

Saly and the Sine Saloum Delta / 150 km (variable depending on option) Taking control of the bikes and departing for immersion in the natural region of Sine Saloum, north of Gambia. This immense delta is formed by the confluence of 2 rivers: the Sine and the Saloum and form sandbanks, islets... The landscapes are superb and these expanses are ideal for motorcycle rides. Night in an eco-lodge.

3 - Saloum - Toubakouta - 160

Sine Saloum - Toubakouta / 160 km (variable depending on option) An essential destination, Sine Saloum is made up of islands, mangroves, beaches, and mangroves, all flown over by hundreds of bird species... More beautiful tracks to reach the gates of Casamance near Gambia to the south of the country.

4 - Toubakouta - Koba - 210

Toubakouta - Kaolack - Koba / 210 km Heading to the savannah villages, with alternating beautiful tracks... The landscapes recall the great Sahelian expanses: regions suitable for breeding, where the Peuls and their livestock crisscross these arid landscapes offering numerous sometimes sandy tracks. We spend the evening in the middle of the bush in a very pleasant eco-lodge under a starry sky around Touba.

5 - Koba - Saint Louis - 190

Koba - St. Louis / 190 km Beautiful tracks crossing the vast Sahel spaces, the Ferlo plain and its Peul camps... The greenery appears on the border of the Senegal River... Lively and colorful markets are likely along the way, always offering warm encounters... before arriving in St. Louis, nicknamed the African Venice and classified as UNESCO with a very rich history making it a mythical city. A tour guide will allow you to discover this lively city with a colonial past, following in the footsteps of Saint-Exupéry... (or the following morning depending on timing). Hotel.

6 - Saint Louis - Lompoul - 140

St. Louis - Lompoul Desert / 140 km Stopover in St. Louis, nicknamed the African Venice and classified as UNESCO with a very rich history making it a mythical city. A tour guide will allow you to discover this lively city with a colonial past, following in the footsteps of Saint-Exupéry... Then heading south on the bike: variable itinerary depending on the tide... A top sensation of freedom along the beach (depending on the tide)... The dunes in the distance announce our arrival in a magical site: overnight in the Maure camp in the dunes, in a Saharan atmosphere...

7 - Lompoul - Lake Retba - 200

Lompoul - Lac Rose - Saly / 200 km Morning camel ride in the dunes (optional) then we take our bikes: variable itinerary depending on the tide and level... Like the pilots of the first "Paris-Dakar", we arrive at the mythical Lac Rose and continue to the Petite Côte and arrive in Saly, the end of our colorful adventure! End of the ride and installation at the hotel. Free dinner/night included.

8 - Lake Retba - Dakar - 0

Saly / free day and evening flight. Free day, meals not included. The hotel can put you in touch with taxis to, for example, visit the market, have lunch by the ocean, relax, have a massage, excursion to the Bandia reserve (African fauna), etc. Airport transfer according to flight time. End of service.
